About the Sunflower Award

The Sunflower Award is a quarterly award program that recognizes, honors, and celebrates team members who are in a non-registered nurse role (i.e. Therapist, Teacher, CNA, Tech, MA, Housekeeper, LPN, other administrative roles, etc.). Honorees are recognized as outstanding role models who consistently demonstrate excellence through teamwork, respect, a positive attitude, exemplary communication, and knowledge. The actions of honorees help to enhance the remarkable experience at BDCH.

BDCH is proud to offer this award to team members!

Sunflower Award Honorees

Each Sunflower Award Honoree will be recognized at a public ceremony in her/his department and will receive a:

- Beautiful certificate
- Laser-engraved award
- Badge tag
- Sunflower Award pin

Additionally, everyone in the department will celebrate with a cinnamon treat.

Submitting this Form:

Anyone may thank a deserving team member by filling out this form and submitting it to Shirley Jahn in Human Resources at BDCH.

You may also submit your nomination online by visiting http://bdch.com/sunflower.

The Sunflower Award

The award presented to the Sunflower Honoree is custom made by Mick Fischer Trophy, a business located in Beaver Dam. This award signifies the Honoree's ongoing and outstanding excellence, dedication, and commitment to their job and those around them. Each recipient will receive a dated award with their name laser engraved so it can be proudly displayed!

Is there a Registered Nurse you want to thank?

There is a separate award just for registered nurses! It's called The DAISY Award. If there is a RN you want to thank, please consider nominating him/her for the DAISY Award.

You can visit www.bdch.com/daisy for more information, or look for brochures located throughout the hospital.
